- Teach structured writing skills including analysis, argument, and research-based writing.
- Support student growth in reading comprehension, vocabulary, and communication.
- Maintain a structured and supportive classroom environment.
- Provide timely feedback on writing assignments and student progress.
- Differentiate instruction to meet diverse learning needs.
- Collaborate with faculty and residential staff to support student success.

Skills

- Expertise in curriculum development tailored to high school language arts standards
- Strong writing skills across creative writing, journalism, research papers, and analytical essays
- Experience with instructional design, lesson planning, and assessment creation
- Knowledge of learning technology platforms and digital resources for education
- Ability to mentor students in developing their academic writing and critical thinking skills
- Classroom management expertise combined with behavior management techniques

- Experience working with diverse student populations, including those with special education needs or in private school settings
- Background in higher education teaching or advanced coursework in linguistics or related fields is a plus

Qualifications

- Bachelor's degree in English, Education, or related field.
- Experience teaching high school English preferred.
- Strong classroom management and organizational skills.
- Virginia teaching licensure or eligibility preferred
